

Monday, July 9, 2018

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

The Stable Ground Project will host a Block Party on Palmer Street, Dudley Square on Saturday, July 21st from 2:30 p.m. – 6:00 p.m. The Block Party will feature a performance of Invisible: Imprints of Racism by Anna Myer & Dancers / beheard.world in conjunction with Trend Stream and Dudley Square's Inner Sanctum. The City of Boston's Office of Housing Stability will be on hand to inform residents about their programs and services.

The event is free and open to the public, with the following scheduled activities:

- 2:30 p.m. Community Speakers
- 3:00 p.m. Inner City Sanctuary for the Arts invites the public to hold hands to encircle Dudley Square's Inner Sanctum
- 3:30 p.m. Open Mic
- 4:30 p.m. Barbeque Cook Out
- 5:00 p.m. Performance: Invisible: Imprints of Racism

Stable Ground is an effort to address the complex relationship among chronic housing insecurity, its psychologically traumatic impact, and municipal housing policy through participatory community-based art and culture programming that is structured to inform the work of the City of Boston's Office of Housing Stability. Stable Ground is funded by a generous grant from The Kresge Foundation. To learn more about Stable Ground, visit www.stablegroundboston.org. To learn more about Invisible: Imprints of Racism, visit www.behheard.world. Questions about the July 21st event should be directed to Dan Jackson at da.jackson@northeastern.edu.